CONGRESSIONAL RECORD VOTE CORRECTIONS

The following are corrections in the official outcome of votes taken during the first session of the 102nd Congress.

The lists are subdivided into "Vote Corrections" and "Stand or Announcement Changes." The former may involve adjustment of the "Yeas" and "Nays" in the breakdown on Congressional Quarterly vote charts; the latter do not affect the breakdown.

Congressional Record "Stand or Announcement Changes" listed below were inserted in the Record too late for CQ to include on current Weekly Report vote charts; Weekly Report pages where these votes may be found are indicated so that you may bring your Weekly Report file into conformity with the Record.

Symbols used in these vote corrections:

Y - Yea	+ - Announced For
N - Nay	- - Announced Against
? - Absent	# - Paired For
C - Voted "Present" to avoid possible conflict of interest	X - Paired Against
	P - Voted "Present"

Tracking Congress is complicated enough.

CQ's Washington Alert isn't.

Tired of tracking down hard copies of the Federal Register and the Congressional Record? Tired of searching for member biographies, gathering vote records, or trying to keep up with the latest legislative action?

There is a better way. Subscribe to Washington Alert, the online congressional tracking service from Congressional Quarterly.

Washington Alert, with 17 integrated public and proprietary information databases, gives you everything from the complete text of the Federal Register within hours of its publication to the entire text of CQ's Weekly Report before the hard copy is even printed.

Add to that comprehensive congressional schedules, news, political analyses, member profiles, legislative updates, voting records and the status of bills, plus the LinkService™ to CapitolHill™ Lobbyist™, and you understand why so many professional Congress-watchers are turning to Washington Alert.

There are also those who find our new COMMITTEE database, with its complete coverage of committee and subcommittee action and votes irresistible.

Call David Stevens toll-free at 1 (800) 432-2250 ext. 366 (in D.C. call 887-6366), for a demonstration today.

It won't cost you a penny and it certainly beats chasing down information the old way.

The plain-English truth on where Congress spends money.

CQ's Where the Money Goes.

After four months of intensive research, Congressional Quarterly has untangled the public spending maze to give you a thorough review of Congress' spending plans for FY '92.

Get the big picture and the all-important details by reading this Weekly Report special supplement. Where the Money Goes charts all 13 appropriations bills for FY '92 in one place, complete with CQ's objective analysis and political insight.

- How much are the spending bills going to cost federal taxpayers?
- Which congressmen brought home money for roads and research?
- What did President Bush get from Congress?

You can find out in Where the Money Goes: A Guide to Congress' Spending Choices in the 1992 Appropriations Bills. Order at these special bulk rates*:

- 1 - 5 copies, $16 ea.
- 6 - 10 copies, $14 ea.
